CHAPEL & PRAYERS: Thank you to Pastor Wollberg for leading chapel services this week. Our prayer family for the first school week in January will be the family of Charlotte Styma.

Please keep all of our St. John families in your prayers over the winter break. We hope everyone has a safe, wonderful vacation from school. Rest up, so you're ready to learn in the new year.

At chapel we celebrated the birthdays of Mollie Spens, Eva Brietzke, Kylie Crawford and Madison Willey. Happy Birthday, girls! We also celebrated the baptismal anniversaries of Hailey Karsten, Lylah Evans and Evan Langlois.

2019-20 New Student Welcomes

Merry Christmas, Everyone!

It has been a fun month with all the activities leading up to Jesus birthday. Thank you to all families who participated in our singing events. Cheers for the band students who performed in the Dec. 18 concert. Thank you to room parents, holiday volunteers and bakers. We wish a good time to those, who are still to sing or perform in a holiday program and pray everyone is inspired through worship of our Emmanuel. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

K-1 TEACHER PLANS

When school resumes on January 6, classes K-1 will meet their new teacher, Dawn Redfield. Mrs. Petrik will also be with the class for the first week to help make the transition as seamless as possible. Dawn will teach K-1 to about mid-February. We are still conducting interviews for a permanent K-1 teacher. We have some good candidates and a few very competent retired teachers who said they will help however needed.

SPACES AVAILABLE

The best compliment families can give our SJLS family is a referral to a new family! We still have open enrollment! All are welcome in this place!

JANUARY LUNCH DUTY

Please don't forget to sign up. We'd love to be ready for the coming 2020 year. Thanks to everyone who helped in 2019!
