Chapel & Prayers: Thank you, Pastor Weirauch, for leading our service on Wednesday. We sang Happy Birthday to Jase Jumper, Samuel Rauls, Raelyn Romel and Layton Chapman. Also, the 2013 baptism of James Rauls was celebrated. This week we continue to pray for the Cronk family. Next week's prayer families are the families of Alaia Salgado Evans and Zoey Crawford.

Keep bringing your noisy offerings to support Hearts for Jesus this month.

Hearing/Vision Screenings for Y5-8

District Health Dept. #4 will be coming to St. John the morning of February 28 to do hearing and vision checks for our Young 5 through Eighth grade students. Please let us know if your child has any Implanted Medical Devices (Digitally Programmable Shunts, Baclofen Pumps, Vagus Nerve Stimulators, Insulin Pumps, Pacemakers). If so, the technician cannot check their hearing.

SO WHY? Pick a card any card from a gas card to a restaurant CARD to any CARD where you buy your groceries, to help supplement tuition or scholarship with a purchase of business cards that give a % when you physically get cards at SJLS or place orders on February 28 & March 14. ## You Might Not Sew, But We Bet You Can Iron!

The quilters at St. John Lutheran Church could use some ironing volunteers to iron the quilt tops and backs. Ironing can be done at home or in the church. Quilters meet on the first and third Thursdays each month at 9:00am.

Welcoming More Substitute Teachers

Trades of Hope: Empowering Women Out of Poverty

Due to extreme poverty, mothers are giving their babies to orphanages. Millions of women are trafficked each day in the U.S. and globally. What if we told you, you could help artisans by purchasing their fair trade goods and providing sustainable jobs? Your purchase create demand, which enables them to make a steady income. Join Alison Lamb, Trades of Hope partner, and hear how you can make a difference empowering women. She will explain how purchasing ethically-made lines of home accessories, jewelry, coffee and more, gives women a respectable way to feed, clothe, house and educate their children.

Riconda Lamb is hosting a dessert and learn Monday, February 28, in St. John's fellowship hall.

(Handicapped accessible.)

Call 989-657-5168 for more info.

Door prizes, cash and carry items will be available that day.

St. John Library Thanks You

Thanks to your generous donations of books and money, our St. John Lutheran School Library has added almost 200 new books for the children to check out every Friday. Thrivent funds added $250 to our library fund and your donations added another $250. I heard one of the students walking in the hall this past Friday say, "I love going to the library." That put a smile on my face knowing the excitement they have when they see the new books. We now have an ample supply of leveled readers for the younger students, a new Harry Potter series of seven books, and some fishing and hunting books for the older students. I will also add a few more books in the next weeks. Thank you for promoting reading in our school.
