The Common Antiphon: page 221

INTROIT: Read responsively line by line.

Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk,
that by it you may grow up to salvation
—if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

Oh, give thanks to the Lord; call upon his name;
make known his deeds among the peoples!

Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wondrous works!

Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice!

Seek the Lord and his strength; seek his presence continually remember the wondrous works that he has done, his miracles,
and the judgments he uttered.

He remembers his covenant forever
the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk,
that by it you may grow up to salvation
—if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

OFFICE HYMN: LSB 470 “O Sons and Daughters of the King” (4-8)

FIRST READING: Acts 5:12-32 (verses 12-20 on back of bulletin)

²¹And when they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and began to teach.

Now when the high priest came, and those who were with him, they called together the council and all the senate of Israel and sent to the prison to have them brought. ²²But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison, so they returned and reported, ²³“We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them we found no one inside.” ²⁴Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them, wondering what this would come to. ²⁵And someone came and told them, “Look! The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people.” ²⁶Then the captain with the officers went and brought them, but not by force, for they were afraid of being stoned by the people.

²⁷And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, ²⁸saying, “We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man’s blood upon us.” ²⁹But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than men. ³⁰The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. ³¹God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. ³²And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.”

Reader: O Lord, have mercy upon us.

People: Thanks be to God.

ATTENTION: St. John School Alumni

St. John Board of Christian Education is trying to update mailing addresses and e-mails of all St. John Lutheran School graduates. One way to help is to connect with your classmates and ask for their information. Then, contact Monica Fleming at omafleming3@gmail.com or 766-8114. Whether you are from the class of 1932 or 2010 or know of a person from those years, we thank you for your help.

Contemporary Worship:

We are all welcome to gather with Peace at Peace!

The members of Peace would like to invite the members of our Rogers City area sister LCMS congregations to join us as we celebrate the beginning of our new Informal/Contemporary worship service on Sunday, May 1, at 11:15am in our Fellowship Hall. Coffee and Fellowship will precede the service beginning at 10:30am (following our 9:30am service), and our celebration will also include an informal lunch following the 11:15am service. We would love to have you join us in celebrating and asking God's blessing upon this new endeavor!
