CHAPEL & PRAYERS: Thank you, Mrs. Langlois, for leading our Chapel Service this week. This week's prayer family is Kade Karsten's, and we celebrated James Bailey and Clayton Wickersham's birthdays. Happy Birthday, boys! The prayer family next week is the Braune family.

Chapel Will Be Oct. 7 This Week: Chapel will be shared with a bunch of wonderful grandparents on Grandparents Day. Let grandma and grandpa know we are collecting filler items for Operation Christmas Child. Small is key for filling all the nooks and crannies of our Christmas boxes. Some ideas are: small cars, small stuffed animals, small dolls, small balls, stickers, kazoo's, harmonicas, yo-yos, jump ropes, jewelry, whistles, craft items.

The Italian Dinner & Auction is the largest St. John School fundraiser each year, and annually the event earns for our school thousands of dollars for technology and programming.

Expectedly, an army is needed to prepare and hold the big event. This means you. We need each family to find a way or ways to help. Helpers will be needed these upcoming weeks for planning and prep; in the days prior to the event for set up; and on the big day to run stations and help keep things organized and clean. If you can help now, contact Monica Fleming at 989-766-8114. A sign up will be created for the helps needed the week of the event and on the day.

Tickets will be available in the office, beginning Monday, Oct. 3. Auction donations are appreciated, too.
